

Sample Agenda

8:00 – 8:30 AM Registration, computer readiness, coffee and breakfast pastries

8:30 – 9:00 Introductions

9:00 – 10:30 Overview of the Common Sense Economics Course Package:
Modules, Discussions, Assignments, Quizzes, and Tests

Part 1: 12 Key Elements of the Economic Way of Thinking
Modules 1 through 4: engaging the multimedia generation of students with the read, watch, listen, and do approach to instruction

Common Sense: Economics for Life!

Turn on the Learning Light

10:30 - 10:45 Break

10:45 - Noon Part 2: 7 Key Factors for Growth and Prosperity
Modules 5 through 7, content and review

Noon – 12:45 PM Lunch

12:45 – 2:00 Part 3: Economics and the Role of Government
Modules 8 through 11, economics in action

Part 4: Personal Finance
Modules 12 through 15, content and review

2:00 – 3:30 Other special features include:

Controversies in Economics video series

Supplementary Modules A through L. These modules cover Supply and demand in more detail; GDP, inflation, and employment statistics; Monetary and fiscal policy; the Great Depression and recent financial crisis; Economics and values; and Personal finance.

Cooperative efforts – Common Sense Economics for Educators; Massive Open Online Courses with four professional development and promotion badges. Can be used in secondary and post-secondary courses.

Contact us: (636) 949-4858

EEC@Lindenwood.edu